Report on Students-Entrepreneur Interface Programme

Organized by: B. Voc. (Small Tea Garden Management) & IQAC, Kaliabor College

Date: 26th October 2018

On 26th October 2018, a dynamic "Students-Entrepreneur Interface Programme" was jointly organized by B. Voc. (Small Tea Garden Management) and the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) at Kaliabor College. The event aimed to foster a bridge between aspiring students and successful entrepreneurs in the field of tea garden management. The interface brought together distinguished speakers, key industry experts, and students to share insights, experiences, and opportunities. A total of 34 students actively participated in this enlightening programme. Prof. Gautam Kr. Saikia, Department of Tea Husbandry & Technology, Assam Agriculture University, Jorhat, a recognized authority in tea husbandry and technology, served as the key speaker. His extensive knowledge added depth and credibility to the event. Mr. Gajen Barman, Proprietor, BH Mini Tea Plantation, Sirajuli, Sonitpur, a successful entrepreneur in the tea industry, shared his practical experiences and insights into small tea garden management. Mr. Shyamanta Boruah, Organic Tea Farmer & Manufacturer, Gohpur an expert in organic tea farming, highlighted the importance of sustainable and organic practices in the tea sector. Mr. Abinash Daimari, President, Udalguri Farmers Co-operative Society, a leader in cooperative farming, discussed the role of cooperatives in the tea industry and the benefits they offer to small tea growers. Mr. Mrinal Talukdar, a distinguished journalist from Pratidin Time, Guwahati, took on the role of the moderator, ensuring the smooth flow of discussions and encouraging active participation from both speakers and students. The Students-Entrepreneur Interface Programme comprised informative sessions, discussions, and opportunities for students to engage with the expert panel. The event featured panel discussions, where the speakers shared their knowledge and experiences in the tea industry. Topics such as tea cultivation, organic farming, cooperative models, and the challenges and opportunities in the tea sector were explored. The programme encouraged networking among students and the speakers. This facilitated the exchange of ideas and the establishment of potential mentorship relationships.
