

Student Satisfaction Survey: 2023-24

The student satisfaction survey is a tool used to gather feedback from students about their experiences.

It helps educational institutions understand the needs and concerns of their students. With Formlooo, you can create and share a survey to get feedback on how to make students happier.

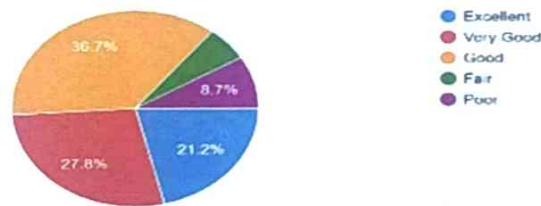

It aims to gather feedback on various aspects of the educational institution experience, such as:

- Academics: Course content, teaching quality, learning resources, support services.
- Campus life: Student facilities, extracurricular activities, sense of community, safety.
- Support services: Academic advising, career counseling, mental health resources.
- Overall experience: Meeting expectations, value for money, preparedness for future careers.

By capturing students' perspectives, educational institutions can identify areas of strength and areas for improvement, ultimately enhancing the quality of education and student life.
