Report on the Festival of Learning at Kaliabor College - Exploring History and Tourism

Date: October 15-22, 2019

Kaliabor College hosted a Festival of Learning from October 15th to October 22nd, 2019, with a focus on History and Tourism. The festival featured a range of programs and drew the participation of over 150 individuals in each session. Distinguished resource persons provided valuable insights into the fields of tourism, leadership, history, and eco-tourism. The Festival of Learning at Kaliabor College was a week-long event aimed at promoting knowledge, skills, and awareness in the fields of History and Tourism. The program included the following key sessions:

1. Interaction with Tourist Guide: Participants had the opportunity to engage with an experienced tourist guide to gain insights into the world of tourism, understand its challenges, and learn about the art of guiding tourists.
2. Leadership & Personality Development Program: Mr. Sunil Basumatary, Former Director of NSS, Guwahati, conducted an inspiring session on leadership and personality development, empowering the attendees with valuable skills for personal and professional growth.
3. Use of Maps in History & Tourism: This program focused on the significance of maps in the context of both history and tourism, helping participants understand how to navigate and interpret geographical data.
4. Promising Future with Eco-Tourism in NER: Mr. Monimanik Gogoi, Head of the Sasoni Eco-Tourism Project, Dibrugarh, provided insights into the potential of eco-tourism in the North-Eastern region, shedding light on sustainable tourism practices.
5. Use of History as Social Science: Dr. Manorama Sarma, a Professor Emeritus in History from NEHU, highlighted the role of history as a social science, emphasizing its relevance in understanding societies, cultures, and civilizations.

Each program session attracted more than 150 participants, demonstrating the strong interest and enthusiasm of the college's students and the local community in exploring the fields of history and tourism. This festival contributed to the academic and personal development of the participants and encouraged a deeper appreciation of history and the tourism industry.

'Festival of Learning' ends at Kaliabor College

ANN Service

KALIABOR, Oct 23: A "Festival of Learning", which was conducted at Kaliabor College from October 15, concluded yesterday. The programme began with an interaction with the stakeholders of tourism of Kaziranga National Park and was held in collaboration with the subdivisional civil administration. Apart from officers of civil administration, drivers of Jeep Safari of Kohora, Burapahar and Bagari ranges took part. President, secretaries of local heritage sites, managers of local tea gardens, teachers and students took part in the interaction.
